

Discover the southern Black Forest by bus

Wanderbus Wutachschlucht: the easy way to get there and back

The black Wanderbus line runs regularly on weekends and holidays from Löffingen to Unadingen, stopping at all the important entry points for the Wutachschlucht gorge, a one-of-a-kind nature reserve area. The Wanderbus offers a convenient alternative to travel by car.

The red Wanderbus line runs between the Wutachmühle and Schattenmühle mills, stopping at Bonndorf, which is on the 7258 line running to and from Titisee-Neustadt. The red line makes it easy to get back to where you started or parked your car.

Guided tours of the gorge with a Wutach ranger

In the summer, guided tours are offered every Tuesday (see back for schedules), and on the weekends by request. Contact Wutach Ranger Martin Schwenninger on +49 (0) 7703 919-412 or at martin.schwenninger@gmx.de.

The Schwarzwaldverein Black Forest club offers hiking tips in the Drei-Schluchten-Halle hall in Bachheim every Sunday from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm in May, June, September and October.

For long-distance and day hikers

The Schluchtensteig is a 119 km hiking trail that runs right through the southern Black Forest natural preserve (Naturpark Südschwarzwald), from Stühlingen to Wehr, through the Wutachschlucht gorge, along the shore of the Schluchsee lake, and through the Wehratal valley. The Wanderbus Schluchtensteig bus line will take you there.

Tips

Arriving by train or bus:

Trains run to Löffingen and Döggingen every hour from Freiburg and Donaueschingen.

West to East: Connections run from the Löffingen train station to the gorge entry points several times a day. Hike through the gorge to the Wutachmühle mill, then take the Wanderbus back to the Schattenmühle mill and from there back to Löffingen station. If you are an experienced hiker, you can take the trail through the Gauchachschlucht gorge to the Döggingen train station.

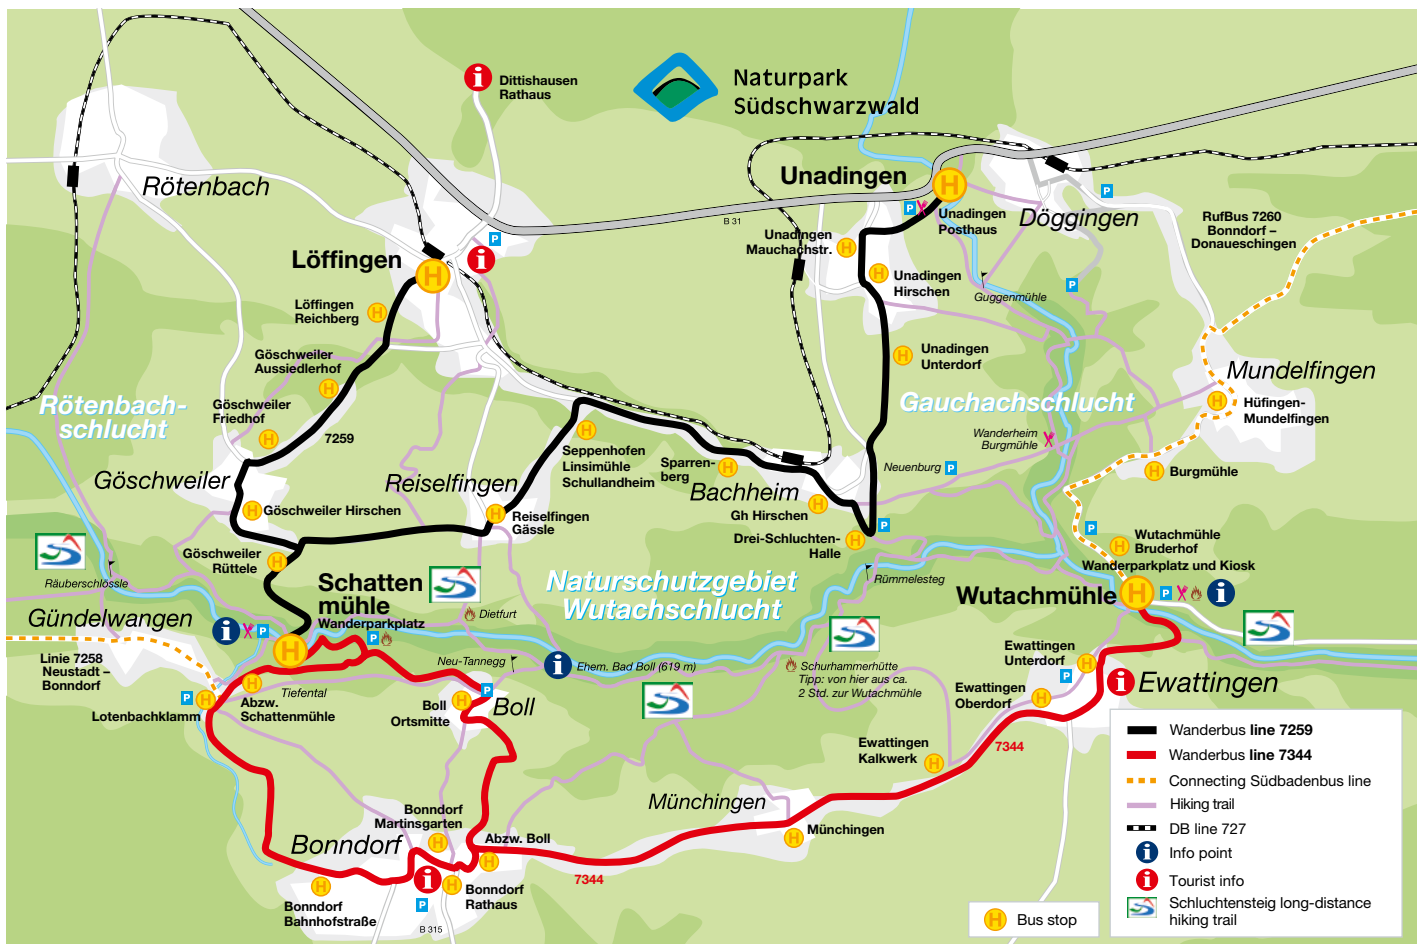

East to West: From the Döggingen train station, hike through the Gauchachschlucht and Wutachschlucht gorges to Bachheim, Reiselfingen or the Schattenmühle mill, where you can catch the Wanderbus to the Löffingen train station.

Arriving by car:

Park your car at the Wutachmühle car park and take the Wanderbus to Boll or the Schattenmühle mill. You will have plenty of time to hike back to your car. You can also hike in the opposite direction, leaving your car at the Schattenmühle car park.

Or park at the Drei-Schluchten-Halle hall in Bachheim, hike to the Schattenmühle mill and then take the bus back to your car.
